HOC SIGNO FORTUNA.

BALTIMORE, THURSDAY, August 12, 1824.

The Eleventh Day's Drawing

Of the Washington Monument Lottery took place yesterday, as heretofore announced, and will be found in an adjoining column. It will be observed that one of the Ten Thousand Dollar prizes was drawn to No. 10939, and which remained unsold in the hands of the Managers, from whom it might have been obtained through the medium of Cohen's Office, for the trifling sum of Twelve Dollars.—The Twelfth day's drawing will be on Wednesday after next, the 25th inst. after which the whole lottery will be brought to a speedy conclusion—we solicit adventurers therefore, to send on their orders without delay, the Highest Prizes of the Scheme, the $20,000—and the $10,000, &c. yet remaining to be distributed.

| Tickets, - $ 12 00 | Quarters, - $ 3 00 |
| Halves, - 6 00 | Eighths, - 1 50 |

Orders from any part of the United States, either by mail (post paid) or by private conveyance, enclosing the Cash or prizes in any of the Baltimore Lotteries, will meet the same prompt and punctual attention as if on personal application, addressed to

J. I. COHEN, JR.

Sec'y to the Manag'rs—BALTIMORE,

Another capital presented & paid

The second Quarter of the great Capital Prize of ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS in the late Grand State Lottery, (No. 15,631,) has been presented, and the CASH, as usual, INSTANTLY PAID, conformably to the accustomed promptness and punctuality at COHEN'S OFFICE, where the magnificent prize was obtained—the fortunate holder is Mr. JOHN SCUDDER, of Savannah, in the State of Georgia, whose name we mention by permission.

We take this occasion of respectfully soliciting the holders of all the prizes not yet presented, either to hand or send them in for payment with as little delay as possible—the CASH is waiting their convenience.

A well-timed Favor of Fortune.

For the information of the public, who have been anxious to know the names of all the fortunate adventurers in the late State Lottery, we can now mention, that Mr. ELISHA TARVER, of Knoxville, Crawford County, Georgia, is the holder of the HALF TICKET of the Hundred Thousand Dollar prize; and that accounts from various parts of that State corroborate the merits of the fortunate holder.—We anticipate the pleasure of seeing him in a few days, and shall be highly gratified in presenting to him a check on Bank, which will realize to him that splendid independence which his good fortune has entitled him.

Extract of a letter from a gentleman in Clinton, Jones' County, Georgia, dated July 12th.

"No doubt you will be pleased to learn that one half of the highest prize, 100,000 dollars, in the Grand State Lottery, (sold at Cohen's Office) could hardly have fallen into hands more needy, or more deserving. Mr. Elisha Tarver, the fortunate owner, for several years was an inhabitant of this village; owing to a severe loss by fire, and other misfortunes, he was reduced to poverty, which he bore without a murmur. He is a man of piety, which he exemplifies by the every day transactions of his life; is strictly honest, very industrious, and possesses in a high degree those desirable qualifications which make him a firm friend, good neighbor and estimable citizen."

Grand State Lottery, No. III.

On the 4th page of this day's Register, we continue the Scheme of the GRAND STATE LOTTERY, No. III. It will be noticed that the amount of the Scheme is not so large as the last, and that though the great Capital is not of such magnitude, yet the completion we anticipate will be accomplished in less time, and the Prizes of sufficient brilliancy and attraction for the present times. One line of the Scheme we particularly admire; it is the 30 Prizes of 1,000 Dols. each! which is an unusually large number of Prizes of that denomination—the line also 20 Prizes of 500 Dols. each, is also an attraction—these two combined, will give FIFTY IMPORTANT PRIZES to adventurers, independent of the great Capitals of 40,000, 20,000, 10,000, &c.

The Tickets and Shares are now preparing, and we shall give due notice when ready for sale—and also, when the first advance on the original prices will take place.

Halves, Quarters, and Eighths.

The great success attending share tickets in the Grand State Lottery has caused a very spirited demand for shares in the popular scheme of the MONUMENT LOTTERY, which is the only one now drawing in Baltimore—we shall endeavour to keep a supply of Halves, Quarters and Eighths, as well as whole tickets, throughout the lottery—the wheels are now very interesting—the great Capitals of $20,000—$10,000—$10,000: still undrawn.

Caution to distant Adventurers.

Direction of Letters.—We beg permission to request our friends and customers residing in distant places, to be particular in directing their letters to J. I. COHEN JR. No 114 Market St. BALTIMORE. It will thereby prevent mistakes in being sent to another office, the name of which on paper, appears similar, and to which we understand, several letters have lately been directed on the supposition that the name was ours.

GEN'L LA FAYETTE.—The ship Stephania has arrived at New-York from Havre, and brings Paris papers to the 24th June. Gen. LA FAYETTE could not complete his arrangements in time for this vessel, but it was expected he would embark from Havre between the first of July and the first of August.—The ship Cadmus, which was to have sailed on the first of July, was to have waited for the General until the 10th; and we may reasonably calculate that the next packet will enable us to announce the highly gratifying intelligence to the citizens of the United States, of the safe arrival of General LA FAYETTE in this country.

DEATH OF MR. RODNEY.—By the arrival of the brig Noble at this port on Saturday last, in the very short passage of 36 days from Buenos Ayres, papers to the 30th June have been received. These communicate the melancholy intelligence of the death of the Hon. C. A. RODNEY, American Minister at Buenos Ayres. He died suddenly on the 10th of June, at six in the morning, and was buried with appropriate marks of respect on the following day. His family were to take passage for Philadelphia on board the brig America, captain Neal, to sail in a few days after the Noble. The Government of Buenos Ayres, as a mark of respect to his memory, had decreed that a Sepulchral Monument be erected forthwith over his remains, at the expense of that government.

FROM AFRICA.—By the schooner Fidelity, capt West, at this port on Saturday in 32 days from Rio Pongus (Africa) we learn that the American Colony at Messurado was trading peaceably with the natives. The Colonists were in good health and spirits, and their condition flourishing.

INDIANS.—Six coaches, containing a number of Indians, with their interpreters, arrived at Barnum's Hotel on Saturday evening. They are from the seat of the general government, and are the same whose reception at Washington has been noticed in the papers. We learn that they purpose travelling eastward as far as West Point.

Miscellaneous Summary.

Commodore JAMES BARRON, has been appointed by the Secretary of the Navy, to the command of the Navy Yard and Station of Philadelphia.

La Fayette.—The Boston papers state that the elegant mansion at the corner of Beacon and Park-streets, in that city, is to be fitted up for the residence of Gen. La Fayette. It is one of the most delightful situations in Boston, fronting directly on the commons.

It has been suggested by the Petersburg Republican that the 22d of October next, the anniversary of Cornwallis' surrender, be set apart by the Virginians as a day of especial honor to Gen. La Fayette, under the hope that he will on that day revisit the spot where American freedom was finally consummated, and where his own fair fame was augmented and made immortal.

The Pennsylvania Agricultural Society will hold their second exhibition and cattle show, near Chester, in Delaware county, on Thursday the 14th and Friday the 15th of October next.

The period fixed by law for the termination of Slavery in the state of New-York, is the 4th of July, 1827.—According to the census of 1820 there are 29,279 free persons of color, and 10,092 slaves in that state.

The North American Review has been proscribed in France. By a formal order of the government its title is inserted in the list of prohibited books, and the custom-house officers are commanded not to suffer it to pass through their hands into the country. Booksellers are also forbidden to have it on sale, and it is subject to be seized when found in any person's possession.

The State Bank at Morris, (N. J.) has put into circulation a new emission of one dollar bills made payable in bills of the incorporated banks of the state of New Jersey, instead of specie as heretofore.

Monsieur le Baron de Marcuil, Minister from France to the United States, has arrived at Norfolk, (Va.) from Brest.

Cheap and Expeditious.—A gentleman who left Congress Hall, Saratoga, has arrived at New-York, having traveled two hundred and seventy-five miles in twenty two hours, for the moderate sum of $5.

Owing to the competition on the New-York Canal, the packet boats have been fitted up in a splendid manner for the reception of passengers, including a sumptuous table and the best beds.—The charges are very low. Travellers proceed in these boats at the rate of 100 miles in 24 hours, avoiding heat and dust, and having around them all the comforts of the drawing room.

Negro Jacob, for the murder of James Foreman, a free Negro, at Norfolk, has been tried, convicted of manslaughter, and sentenced to be burned in the hand and receive thirty-nine lashes.
